

Waiver and Consent Form for Minors (Children under 18 years of age)

1. As Parent and/or Legal Guardian, I hereby give legal consent on behalf of _____ (child's name), to Open Door Publishing (OPD) for the story/writing the author has submitted.
2. Open Door Publishing reserves all rights to publish the submitted story in book form, on our website, or in any form the publisher deems fit, without the payment by publisher or any fee or other compensation to the author. The Publisher (ODP) has the right to edit and change the language of the submitted material. The author waives, and assigns to publisher (OPD), any and all ownership of , or copyright, of the submitted material. Author authorizes publisher (ODP) to disclose the name of the author, if publisher (ODP) decides to do so.
3. Publisher (ODP) shall have no obligation to publish the material, or to return the submitted material to the author.
4. Representation by author that the idea for the story and the submitted material is original and has not been copied from the works of any other author, and is based on the actual experiences of the author and/or his or her animals.
5. The submission and Waiver and Consent was voluntarily given by the author to the publisher (ODP). The provisions of the Waiver and Consent are to be governed by the laws of the State of California.
6. Contact information with respect to the author is to be given to the publisher (OPD) by author with submission of the material to publisher (OPD) or is set forth below.
7. Any reference in this Waiver and Consent to publisher (OPD) shall be deemed to include all officers, directors, and employees of publisher (OPD).
8. All the above information is true and correct.

Parent/Legal Guardian Signature

Author (minor) Signature

Date of Submission